Banshee

Not Your Normal Wine Company.

“Our goal is to craft distinctive wine that over-deliver in every possible way. We are a band of wine industry insiders dedicated to producing benchmark wines that provide true value. We are negociants who specialize in finding hidden gems in other wineries’ cellars and then blending those barrels to create killer wines. Thousands of barrels are tasted, only a few are selected for Banshee. The secret is that today, high-end wineries can’t sell all the wine they make and don’t want to lower prices for fear of diminishing their brand. So they sell some of their wine or grapes to us and protect their luxury prices. Fine by us and even better for you.

We are also winemakers who work with high-end vineyards to produce wines of purity and balance. Throughout the year we are working in lock-step with vineyard managers to fine tune our blocks of vines.

You’ll find Banshee on some of the best restaurant lists in the world and in the glasses of wine geeks around the world.”

R. Lopez de Heredia

“Winery of the year 2010 and 2011.” Wine & Spirits

There are few wineries in Spain whose nameconjures the heritage and prestige evoked by R. López de Heredia. Little about this winery has changed in the 134 years since it’s founding by Don Rafael López de Heredia. The family adheres to a winemaking doctrine blueprintedin the 1880’s - to make wine only from their own vineyards, using yeasts, long aging in wood, and no filtration at bottling.

“Perhaps no winery in the world guards its traditions as proudly and steadfastly as López de Heredia does,…it is paradoxically a winery in the vanguard, its viticulture and winemaking a shining, visionary example for young, forward-thinking producers all over the world… At López de Heredia, there is serenity that comes with adherence to core principles…”

In those appellations from the South of France (Maury, Rivesaltes, Banyuls), there is a long tradition of producing fortified wines. The winemaking is very similar to normal wines but the fermentation is stopped by the addition of alcohol to keep a sufficient sweetness (16° alc.). The winemakers keep the best of their production of the best years to beef up the weak vintages. These particular wines have been undisturbed in 500 litre casks at the domaines and only recently bottled. Deep tawny in color with aromas and flavors of coffee, raisins, and caramel. Ready to drink now, this is an ideal wine to savor after dinner, and requires no decanting.

For the first time, the Gault Millau Wine Guide has granted its highest award. At a gala dinner in Wiesbaden’s Restaurant “Ente” chief editor Armin Diel presented Klaus Keller with the award “Winemaker of the Decade”. Diel honored the extraordinary achievement of the Keller family, who practically alone built a new, better reputation for an entire region. Brilliant performances in all categories — from red Spätburgunder to the noble sweet Rieslaner and Riesling — are the Keller’s trademark.

Ken Wright Cellars

“...one of the world’s greatest Pinot Noir houses...” Northwest Palate

“Ken Wright is engaging and passionate about Pinot Noir and an indefatigable champion of its Oregonian editions. He is also almost an icon among its many producers, having created, from scratch, no less than three brands of persistently high reputation: Panther Creek, Domaine Serene, and Ken Wright Cellars. At one point when Wright was the winemaker for both Domaine Serene and Ken Wright Cellars, those houses (which then cohabited) were simultaneously Robert M. Parker’s choices for Oregon’s two outstanding producers of Pinot Noir.” North American Pinot Noir, by John Winthrop Haeger

Penfolds Grange

The Greatest Wine of the Southern Hemisphere.

“Max Schubert (1915-1994), the former Penfolds chief winemaker, said, ‘True excellence is a constant and endless journey, it is not a destination.’

The Penfolds firm, one of the most successful in Australian wine history, has a 150-year legacy of excellence, but it is best known for a wine that many observers have called the greatest wine of the Southern Hemisphere, the Penfolds Grange.”

Wine Advocate
Cabernet Sauvignon is remarkable for its wide ranges of structure (from relatively “light-bodied” to the most “full-bodied”) and age-worthiness. The most coveted renditions come from France’s Bordeaux region and California’s Napa Valley.

5 Bottles to Buy

2012 Angels Landing Napa Cabernet Sauvignon
Napa Valley ______________________ 19.96
One of our top-sellers! Classic Napa Valley fruit, with plenty of black fruits evident on the nose and palate. Nice finish with good structure and a wine that will drink well now or over the next five years.

2012 Banshee Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley __ 29.96
The 2012 Banshee Napa Cabernet Sauvignon begins with a pretty floral, lavender and sweet cherry nose. This leads into a middle weight classic palette of black currents, cherry and tobacco. While it is perfectly accessible now it will age effortlessly on its impeccable balance for another decade.

2012 Foxglove Cabernet Sauvignon Central Coast_________________________Sale *13.97
“Foxglove’s 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon is without question one of the finest values in California. Dark red cherry, plum, grilled herbs, smoke and tobacco are some of the many notes that inform this vibrant, polished impeccable Cabernet Sauvignon from vineyards in Paso Robles. Aging in steel keeps the flavors fresh and vibrant throughout.” Antonio Galloni

2012 Spice Block Cabernet Sauvignon ___________ 12.96
All the right stuff in this South American gem! Well balanced and well made with a beautiful bouquet of fresh violets and plums in the nose followed by a great flavor profile of nutmeg, coffee, tobacco, dark cherries and a little vanilla rounding it out. Match it up with bbq pulled pork on a sourdough roll, Southern fried chicken with a creamy coleslaw salad and lamb kabobs over steamed rice with a hint of jasmine.

2012 Baus Family Private Reserve Series Cabernet Sauvignon Sonoma Valley __________ 14.96
A full-bodied and rich Cabernet, this wine is dark ruby in color, with aromas of dark fruit and cloves. Flavors of black cherries and blackberries emerge upon the palate. The fruit is beautifully balanced with a smooth, long finish. This wine has tremendous structure without the feel of excessive tannins or oak. Serve with grilled lamb chops or braised short ribs.

Domaine de La Romanée Conti

Rare, Profound & Complex. All direct from their cellar in Vosne Romanee.

Borgogno

One of the oldest wine cellars in Piedmont: it was born in 1761 with Bartolomeo Borgogno.

“At present, Borgogno’s top wines include the Barolo classico, which is made from estate-owned vineyards and is aged exclusively in cask. This wine is offered in both normal and later release Riserva versions. Despite its name, the Barolo Storico is actually the one wine that does make some concessions to more modern tastes. This selection is made from the Liste vineyard is aged in smaller French oak barrels. Despite its name, the Barolo Storico is actually the one wine that does make some concessions to more modern tastes. This selection is made from the Liste vineyard and is aged in smaller French oak barrels. Despite their midweight size, these are deceptively muscular and austere wines that will require significant cellaring to be at their best and that will last for decades. Borgogno also has one of Piedmont’s best-stocked collections of older vintages. From time to time the estate re-releases these wines, but the re-conditioning process the wines undergo makes them come across as much younger than non-reconditioned original-release bottles.” Wine Advocate

Screaming Eagle

“One of the most compelling estates in Napa Valley.”
Wine Advocate

“Screaming Eagle remains one of the most compelling estates in Napa Valley. The winery is now under full control of Stan Kroenke. Consultant Andy Erickson is no longer involved in the property but his protégé Nic Gislason appears to have the passion and talent to take things to the next level, as impossible a task as that may seem given the profound quality of the wines here.” Wine Advocate

William Fevre

Coming from a family that has been in the Chablis region for more than 250 years, William Fèvre’s father was already a great wine-maker after World War II. His son William founded the Domaine de la Maladière and announced his first harvest in 1959. For many years, William Fèvre (who to this day enjoys a very good reputation as a defender of historically renowned terroirs), has worked each plot keenly and skillfully so as to make wine whose personality reflects the authenticity of the soils from which they spring. In 1998, the venerable Henriot family from Champagne succeeded him. To continue these focused efforts, the Domaine was taken up with the constant desire to make indisputably genuine and fine wines, and above all with bringing along a very personal expertise in Chardonnay. All the efforts have but one goal – to finely express the most subtle variations in the greatest Chablis crus.

“Extraordinary producers of Barolo, Luciano Sandrone and his wife worked at Marchesi di Barolo before acquiring a tiny plot of land outside their native village of Barolo in 1977. Theirs quickly became a cult wine, first with their 1982 and 1985 vintages. Then they made a wine that merited one of the first perfect scores I ever gave a Barolo, the 1990. There is attention to detail in the vineyard and in the winery at every level, and the results are wines that are hybrid creations, paying respect to both progressives and traditionalists. Of course, Sandrone knows his vineyards: his Cannubi Boschis, a magnificent site with a south-eastern exposition, is extraordinary, and his Le Vigne, another top Barolo vineyard, is a site that is not nearly as well known but capable of making exceptional wine. These are extraordinary expressions of Nebbiolo that combine both power and elegance.” Wine Advocate

Solaia and Tignanello

Antinori’s Genius.

Named after a choice vineyard on the property, Tignanello was introduced in 1973, and set the standard for exceptional Italian wine, pioneering a whole new category of luxury wines known as “Super Tuscans”. Tignanello is the first Sangiovese aged in small oak barrels: the first red wine in modern times to use a non-traditional grape variety (Cabernet) in the blend; and among the first red wines made in Chianti with no white grapes. Boasting an intense ruby red color with light garnet hues, Tignanello offers complex and harmonious aromas of tobacco, curry powder, blackberry and blackcurrant jam. Silky on the palate, this wine has a light hint of sweet, nicely rounded tannins in its persistent finish.

Just to the east of Tignanello lies the remarkable 25-acre vineyard known as Solaia, the “sunny one”. Widely considered one of the best Cabernet blends in the world, Solaia is produced only in exceptional vintages. Smoothly blending the aromas of black pepper, coffee, chocolate, vanilla, and plum, Solaia is strikingly elegant with nicely blended tannins that support the sensation of sweetness and weight. Hints of licorice and coffee return in the impressively long finish.

2011 The Culprit

A Staff Favorite.

One of our latest discoveries is a great California red called “The Culprit” which is blended from a whole kitchen sink of varietals much like Orin Swift’s “The Prisoner”. The better news is that it’s half the price of the Prisoner, and you’d be hard pressed to find nearly that much of a difference in the quality. Not a wine for the faint of heart.

This wine is guilty — of being outrageously, sinfully pleasurable! A big, bold wine with deep flavors of blueberry syrup, blackberry jam and dark chocolate, lifted by fresh raspberries and framed with velvety tannins. This fruit-forward, palate-pleasing beauty finishes long, lingering and smooth. A blend of nine different grape varieties, The Culprit and quality for a steal of a price.

You might not catch this Culprit red-handed, but it is likely to leave you with a set of purple lips! A great red with just about everything.

Chambers
Rosewood Vineyards

“Among the greatest fortified wines in the world.”
Wine Advocate

“The Chambers family specializes in fortified Muscat and Muscadelle, traditional wines of Rutherglen, where they established their winery in 1858. Stephen Chambers is the sixth generation of the family to tend their 120 acres of vines and sustain their blending stocks. He produces wines in three tiers of age, quality and complexity, feeding and tapping into a modified Solera for his basic Rutherglen Muscat, selecting wines from the early 20th century to blend into his Grand Muscat and reserving his oldest stocks of centenarian wines for the Rare.” Wine & Spirits

Hilliard Bruce

“These are striking wines…” Wine Advocate

“The Hilliard Bruce vineyard, situated just west of Clos Pepe in the Sta. Rita Hills (and on the same line as Babcock, Melville and Zotovich, among others), was planted in 2004 and currently comprises 21 of the property’s total 101 acres of land. Owners John Hilliard and Christine Bruce meticulously maintain their grounds and vines (they are both certified Master Gardeners) and have spared no expense to make this one of the showpiece vineyards of the AVA. My first encounter with the vineyard was via the excellent Pinot made from their fruit by Paul Lato, and they are now moving into making estate wines, with the consulting assistance of Lato. As might be expected, the wines emphasize elegance and balance rather than mass and power. These are still very young vines so it will be interesting to follow the wines over the coming years.” Josh Reynolds, in Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar

Chardonnay has been the world’s most popular white wine for decades, often coveted for its “big” fruit and oak-influenced flavors.

7 Bottles to Buy

2012 Baus Family Private Reserve Series Chardonnay
Sonoma Valley _______________________ 14.96
Fresh aromas of Bartlett pear, lemon peel, clove and honeysuckle. Fruit forward flavors of peaches, pears, lime custard and vanilla all framed around the new oak with a creamy middle. The tropical fruit flavors display themselves at the end with a gratifying finish. Serve it with steamed lobster, poached salmon and chicken piccata.

2012 Bouchard Pere et Fils Pouilly Fuisse ____ Sale *24.97
“The 2012 Pouilly-Fuissé from Domaine Bouchard Père et Fils is a very fine bottle and a significant step up from the Bourgogne in terms of complexity. The bouquet offers up a fine blend of apple, pera, stoney soil tones, citrus peel, a nice touch of Mâconnais toastiness and lime blossoms in the upper register. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, crisp and complex, with a fine core, bright acids and very good focus and grip on the long and well-balanced finish. A lovely bottle of Pouilly Fuissé. 2014-2020+.” View From the Cellar

2011 Charles Vienot Pouilly Fuisse ___________ 18.96
All Chardonnay and all GOOD! Vibrant and alive with notes of minerals and melons followed by apples and pears. Ripe and supple ending in a fresh and silky finish gently touched with oak. A treat with whole Maine lobsters, king crab legs, baked ham and poultry dishes.

2012 Foxglove Chardonnay Central Coast ____ Sale *13.97
“Lemon oil, white flowers, mint and slate meld together in the 2012 Chardonnay. Racy and beautifully layered on the palate, this tank-fermented, non-malo Chardonnay delivers exceptional quality for the money.” Antonio Galloni, rated 89/100

2012 Tor Kenward Chardonnay Hudson Vineyard _ *59.95
“The 2012 Chardonnay Hudson Vineyard comes across like a Meursault premier cru. Production was much higher with this 2012, but you would never know it since the vineyard was thinned, and Tor dialed back on the oak component, giving the fruit more of a spotlight in the wine’s personality. Light gold-colored with plenty of honeysuckle, tropical fruit and a buttery undertone, this full-bodied Chardonnay possesses good acidity as well as freshness.” Wine Advocate, rated 91-93/100

2011 Brick House Chardonnay Cascadia __________ 34.99
“The Brick House 2011 Chardonnay Cascadia features fresh apple and lime wreathed in bittersweetly perfumed gentian, iris and lily-of-the-valley. Delightfully vivacious and refreshing yet at the same time subtly creamy, it reveals salinity and stoniness in a sustained, Saliva-drawing finish. Plan to enjoy it through at least 2016” Wine Advocate, rated 90/100

2011 William Fevre Chablis Champ Royaux ____ Sale *19.97
“A bright, crisp wine with a fresh bouquet and flavors of green apple and citrus. Elegant and supple, with mineral notes typical of the appellation. A food-friendly wine that pairs beautifully with white meats, fish and shellfish.” International Wine Cellar

Dominus Estate

French Soul, California Soil.

“This great vineyard, which formed the basis for the legendary Inglenook Cabernet Sauvignon, imparts the wine with a distinctive French character. These wines go from strength to strength and are meant to age for 25 years, but in the 6 liter format this could be 100 years. Dominus wine represents a profound expression of Napa Cabernet Sauvignon made in the style of an outstanding Bordeaux.” Wine Advocate

Capiaux Cellars

A Midas touch with Pinot Noir.

“Proprietor-winemaker Sean Capiaux, who also makes the superb wines for Howell Mountain’s O’Shaughnessy winery, is dedicated to producing single-vineyard Pinot Noir from Russian River and Sonoma Coast vineyard sites. He does a superb job.” Wine Advocate

Achaval-Ferrer

A Titan from Argentina, A Master of Malbec.

Founded in 1998 by a group of friends and Italian winemaker Roberto Cipresse, Achával-Ferrer has fast established a reputation as one of Argentina’s very top names. Early on, the founders discovered that old vines and very low yields were key to achieving high quality. ‘What makes a wine extraordinary is the expression of the uniqueness of its terroir,’ says Santiago Achával, president and winemaker. All the wines are 100% Malbec or Malbec-based blends, as it ‘best reflects the terroir’. The top single-vineyard wines show the personalities of the three fincas (vineyards): Altamira in La Consulta, Mirador in Medrano and Bella Vista in Perdriel. The estate also produces a 100% Malbec – Quimera – made from grapes from the three sites, embracing the idea that the whole is better than the parts.” Decanter

Jean Louis Chave

World Class.

“This is the model estate for a family-owned vineyard—a great family, a great domaine, a great terroir, and great wines. While the father and son, as well as the other 500 years or so of Chaves who have made wines from the hallowed hills of Hermitage, may be world-class tasters, superb chefs, and gifted storytellers, the fact remains that Gérard Chave and, increasingly, his talented young son, Jean-Louis, are among the staunchest guardians of terroir, and artisanal/artistic winemaking in France. The humility with which they go about their business (mere custodians of privileged spots on Earth is how they look at it) is refreshing, particularly in a world dominated by greed and an industrial wine culture. They make exquisite red and white Hermitage as well as small amounts of St. Joseph. In the finest vintages, Chave produces tiny amounts of a super-expensive luxury cuvée called Cathelin.” Wine Advocate

Quinta do Noval Nacional

Divine, Monumental.

“The beautiful Quinta do Noval is undoubtedly the most famous port producer, largely because its 1931 and 1927 were to vintage port what the 1947 Cheval Blanc and 1945 Mouton-Rothschild were to the Bordeaux trade—divine, monumental wines of extraordinary depth of flavor. Also, the Quinta do Noval produces a rare vintage port from a small vineyard of ungrafted, pre-phylloxera vines called Nacional. It is so rare that I have never seen, much less tasted, a bottle of what is supposedly a great port.” Wine Advocate

Williams Selyem

Hard to Find, Hard to Get, Hard to Beat.

“Among the first cult Pinot Noir producers in California, partners Bert Williams and Ed Selyem made a series of distinctive, artisanal, unfined, and unfiltered Pinot Noirs in the 1980s and built a huge following for their wines, only to sell the winery in 1998 to John Dyson. Since then, Bob Cabral, who has a nearly identical winemaking philosophy, has been making the wines, and little has changed in either their style or consistently high quality. There is a dizzying array of Pinot Noirs with relatively small productions, ranging from 100 cases for some of the single-vineyard cuvées to 700 cases for others... The overall style of the Williams-Selyem Pinots remains one of elegant, high-acid wines that can age for 10-15 or more years.” Wine Advocate

Domaine Leflaive

Greatest White Wine Estate in Burgundy.

“Domaine Leflaive is simply the greatest white wine estate in Burgundy. The qualities of the Leflaive wines, from the Bourgogne Blanc (the equivalent of many growers’ Puligny Villages, even premiers crus) to the Chevalier-Montrachet, are purity and depth of flavour, and absolute truth of origin. The wines led the appellation under the long reign of the charismatic Vincent Leflaive, but in the hands of his daughter Anne-Claude – aided as régisseur by Pierre Morey – they lead Burgundy.” Decanter

Chateau d'Yquem

Classified First Growth in 1855.

“Historians can verify that the land surrounding the estate was known as Yquem as far back as 1593, when the name was mentioned in a land conveyance. The château, or parts of it, was constructed in the 12th century. By the time the Lur Saluces family became owners in 1785, the wine had already developed an international reputation. Thomas Jefferson had ordered 250 bottles of the 1784, and later acquired 360 bottles of 1787 on behalf of President George Washington, and another 120 bottles for himself. Yquem became even more popular in Russia, where the tsars were great admirers and purchasers of this elixir. Certainly Yquem’s fame has never wavered since.” Wine Advocate

Opus One

The shared dream of two men.

Baron Philippe de Rothschild of Château Mouton Rothschild and Napa Valley vintner Robert Mondavi. The joint venture that came to be called Opus One produced its first vintage in 1979 and opened as a winery in 1991.

Situated in the Oakville appellation of Napa Valley, Opus One’s vineyards compromise 169 acres and are planted to the traditional grape varieties of Bordeaux: Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Malbec and Petit Verdot. The winery remains dedicated to uncompromised quality and to expressing the vision and passionate spirit of its founders, for generations to come.

Of all the classic varieties, this is the most challenging for winemakers because of its sensitivity to climate changes. But in favorable vintages, Pinot Noir often ranks among the world’s great wines.

<td>Delicate, yet fruit-forward with strawberry cherry and sweet spice flavors. The wine ends with firm ripe tannins and a malt and toffee finish. A great wine to have with Ahi tuna seared rare veggie burgers on seeded rolls or colorful mixed green salads topped with grilled chicken and cherry tomatoes. Primarily from the Russian River Valley, the wine finishes clean and long with a sweet note of cherry at the end.</td>

“And then there’s Corliss Estates, this year’s #1 new superstar on the Washington scene, with a bullet… Owner Michael Corliss, a long-time wine lover who told me that what he likes best is ‘10-to-20-year-old Bordeaux,’ has taken a page out of the Bill Harlan playbook by making numerous vintages before releasing the first wines under his name. This is the most exciting new set of Washington State wines I sampled this year…” Steve Tanzer

Chakana’s 2012 Malbec Estate (100% Malbec aged in new and used French oak for 18 months) exhibits a dense, saturated ruby/purple color along with a sweet perfume of charcoal, white chocolate, blueberries and blackberries intermixed with hints of forest floor and spring flowers. A wine of delicacy, suppleness and full-bodied power as well as tremendous harmony and purity, it will provide pleasure over the next 7-8 years.” Wine Advocate, rated 92/100

Mount Eden Vineyards

A Time-Honored Classic.

Mount Eden Vineyards is a small historic wine estate located on a 2000 foot peak in the Santa Cruz Mountain Appellation about 15 miles from the Pacific Ocean. Founded in 1945, it is recognized as one of the original “boutique” California Winery properties, focusing on small lots of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, and Cabernet Sauvignon. Mount Eden’s lineage of estate bottled Chardonnay and Pinot Noir is the longest in California.

Since 1981 Jeffrey Patterson has guided the winemaking and grape growing at Mount Eden. His emphasis is on wine growing rather than winemaking; and an obsession with gentleness and naturalness in the handling of the grapes and wines is his ongoing passion.

Chateau Puech Haut Prestige

“This is the real deal.”
Wine Advocate

“A sensational offering from proprietor Gerard Bru, the 2011 Prestige is the estate’s least expensive wine. Readers may remember the fabulous review the 2010 Prestige received, and the 2011 is just as special. With Bru’s top Reserve wine selling for nearly $100 a bottle, the Prestige cuvée is an outstanding value. Interestingly, Bru has had three of the greatest winemaking consultants on Planet Earth working for him, first Michel Rolland, followed by Claude Gros and now Philippe Cambie. A blend of 60-75-year-old vine Grenache (55%) and 40-year old Syrah (45%), all grown on limestone soils dominated by the famous large rocks (galets roules) also found in parts of Chateauneuf du Pape. The wine is aged in concrete tanks prior to being bottled unfiltered. Some of the vineyards are farmed organically and others biodynamically. The wine exhibits a tremendous perfume of sweet raspberries, spring flowers, forest floor, truffles and lavender as well as a beautiful texture, a full-bodied mouthfeel, stunning velvety tannins and purity, and a long finish. This is the “real deal.” Drink it over the next 4-6 years.” Wine Advocate, rated 91/100

Understand the man and you will understand the wines. Behind the exuberance, behind the dominating personality, behind the Latin passion, behind the skilled manipulation of the domestic and export market and the media there is a poet and a philosopher, a man of sensitivity and taste, a thinker and a perfectionist. And behind the wines, underneath the still atypical cleanliness and vibrant expression of Nebbiolo fruit, in addition to the oakiness and the concentration, is the element that sets Gaja wines above the rest: breed. You can see it in the Chardonnay; you can see it in the Barbera. Above all you can see it in the single-vineyard Barbaresco. This is triumphant, aristocratic Nebbiolo. Wine of great individuality - and wine which for all its ‘modernity’ has not lost its soul.” Clive Coates

After a long and careful search to find the best site possible to plant Pinot Noir, Mohamad “Mo” Ayoub found the land he dreamt about nestled in the Dundee Hills. The volcanic jory soils, south-facing slopes and fertile land made it an easy decision to plant four prized acres of vines in 2001.

“Only a stone’s throw from Harlan Estate and Bond on the western hillsides of Oakville is Tom Futo’s winery. This boutique operation produces less than 1,000 cases from a 12-acre vineyard. Interestingly, a high percentage of Cabernet Franc is used in the blend. This varietal appears to be a magical component used in many wines in the Oakville Corridor.

“I was blown away by the wines I tasted with Tom Futo and his team, headed by winemaker Jason Exposto. Readers should make an effort to taste Futo’s second wine, OV, a nod to Oakford Vineyards, the previous winery on these grounds. Futo’s OV is easily one of the best second wines in the valley. In just about any other winery it would be the top wine. And a great one, at that. As for the flagship Futo—well, it is pretty amazing in all three vintages I tasted. Futo fans will be happy to learn that the winery is working with a 25 year-old parcel in Stags’ Leap that will inform a new bottling if the quality of fruit is up to the estate’s fanatical standards.”

Almacenistas

The word “Almacenista” in Spanish means storekeeper or stockholder. In the specific Jerez context, the expression has been officially defined and protected within the Regulations of the Sherry Council or Governing Body.

Traditionally, the Almacenistas of Jerez have always stored and matured the finest Sherries on behalf of shippers and exporters. Lustau were the first to offer these to the outside world, bottled unblended to preserve their true glory. Lustau invented, and remains the undisputed leader in this category.

Quantities are understandably very limited as the Almacenistas themselves are often reluctant to part with their “collectors’ items”.

2011 Villa Ponciago Fleurie-La Reserve

The New Golden Age of Beaujolais

“Brilliant ruby-red. High-pitched, seductively perfumed aromas of fresh red berries, Asian spices and minerals. Juicy, penetrating and pure, with striking clarity to its lively raspberry and floral pastille flavors. Betrays no excess weight or rough edges and finishes sweet, focused and extremely long, with resonating florality.” Steve Tanzer, rated 92/100

“The colour is bright brilliant, reflecting garnet and violet nuances. The bouquet, fine and elegant, develops notes of cherry and blueberry. Violets and peonies complete these complex notes, giving the wine great distinction. On the palate, it is extremely expressive, with a freshness highlighting the balance between structure and aromatic richness. The maturity of the grapes gives concentration and density specific to great wines, with the extreme finesse and elegance of Fleurie. The finish is enhanced by delicate spicy touches.” Winery notes

Best New Merlot Arrivals!

Merlot is thought of as a “softer,” more approachable cousin of Cabernet Sauvignon, possessing many of the same aromas and flavor components.

5 Bottles to Buy

This classic varietal is perfectly suited for special growing areas of Washington State, and while it blends beautifully with Cabernet Sauvignon, it has the quality and character to stand firmly on its own. It is a pure, lush, classic Merlot with a special intensity that comes with Washington State fruit.

2011 Duckhorn Merlot Napa Valley ________ 42.99
Our Napa Valley Merlot is a complex blend of several individual vineyard lots, incorporating fruit from our Estate Vineyards and from top independent growers throughout the Napa Valley. The final wine is a rich and cohesive expression of the entire Napa Valley, reflecting the varied microclimates and soils of this unique appellation.

2011 Gundlach Bundschu Merlot Sonoma Valley ________________________ 29.99
Aromas of violets, blueberries and spice are followed by an elegant palate of blackberry, black cherry and mocha. Supple tannins add weight and a polished texture and lead to a bright, lush finish. Delicious upon release, this Merlot will benefit from five years of cellaring from vintage and continue to age gracefully for at least ten years.

2012 Leonetti Merlot Walla Walla Valley ___ *84.95
“The 2012 Merlot, which was already in bottle at the time of this tasting, offers an elegant, yet sexy style, with gorgeous black raspberry and creme de cassis fruit, toast, dried spices and licorice, with hints of background tobacco and green herbs, all emerging from the glass. Medium to full-bodied, plump, pure and layered, with a fabulous texture and a big finish, it’s a beautiful wine to drink over the coming decade or more.” Rated 94/100, The Wine Advocate

2011 Ridge Vineyards Merlot Estate ________ *49.95
“The 2011 Merlot Estate is gorgeous. A blast of dark red and black stone fruits melds into a more typical expression of mountain fruit, with savory herb and floral notes that develop in the glass. A kick of bracing 2011 acidity supports a finish laced with iron, smoke, leather and spices. There is plenty to like in this accessible Merlot from Ridge.” Rated 92/100, Antonio Galloni

Curran Creek

Patio Perfect.

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon
Layers of currant, cassis and blackberries. Medium bodied with soft tannins that will satisfy both the novice and the Cab drinker who looks for quality in the bottle. A great value! Try it with turkey burgers, flank steak and pasta dishes.

2012 Chardonnay
Apples and peaches and pears all in a “basket” of crisp, fresh cleanly made Chardonnay. Balanced with creamy overtones and a slight touch of oak for a refreshing, memorable finish. Serve it with a slight chill and enjoy it with cheese and crackers, green field salads and mild white fish dishes.

2012 Moscato
Aromas of citrus and honeysuckle start it off. The flavors are alive and fresh with lots of oranges, pineapples, peaches and melons. A real fruit basket of delight and well balanced leaving it sharp and crisp in the finish. Chill it down and serve as a cocktail or with poached salmon over steamed spinach.

Baus Family Vineyards

Private Reserve Series.

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon Sonoma Valley
A full-bodied and rich Cabernet, this wine is dark ruby in color, with aromas of dark fruit and cloves. Flavors of black cherries and blackberries emerge upon the palate. The fruit is beautifully balanced with a smooth, long finish. This wine has tremendous structure without the feel of excessive tannins or oak. Serve with grilled lamb chops or braised short ribs.

2011 Zinfandel Sonoma Valley
Spicy with wild berries, white pepper and green tea leaves. The briary black fruit is dominating. Long and satisfying with a deep, dark finish. A lot of wine for the money. Pairs nicely with short ribs, flank steaks, venison and also a treat with a simple grilled burger.

2012 Pinot Noir Sonoma Valley
Fresh crushed strawberries and bright cherries lead the way in both aromas and flavors in the fruit-friendly wine. Vibrant and alive with a juicy, jammy burst of red fruit and then it mellow out and becomes harmonious with a gratifying finish. A nice match with grilled chicken breasts over romaine lettuce with fresh mushrooms, onions, plum tomatoes and black olives drizzled with a lemon-olive oil dressing.

2012 Chardonnay Sonoma Valley
Fresh aromas of Bartlett pear, lemon peel, clove and honeysuckle. Fruit forward flavors of peaches, pears, lime custard and vanilla all framed around the new oak with a creamy middle. The tropical fruit flavors display themselves at the end with a gratifying finish. Serve it with steamed lobster, poached salmon and chicken piccata.

2013 Sauvignon Blanc Sonoma Valley
Appetizing notes of lemongrass, citrus, guava and melons with a tangy, fresh mouth feel. Works nicely with clams casino, linguine in lemon cream sauce with grilled shrimp and roasted chicken with a light brown gravy over wide noodles.

Great Value from Argentina!

2011 Malbec ______________ 14.96
Aromas of cinnamon and blackberries lead to abundant flavors of plums, dark cherries and blackberry jam. Great balance and structure allows it to stand up to Mexican, Cajun, Indiana and Italian fare. Also matches well with BBQ.

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon ____________ 12.96
All the right stuff in this South American gem! Well balanced and well made with a beautiful bouquet of fresh violets and plums in the nose followed by a great flavor profile of nutmeg, coffee, tobacco, dark cherries and a little vanilla rounding it out. Match it up with bbq pulled pork on a sourdough roll, Southern fried chicken with a creamy coleslaw salad and lamb kabobs over steamed rice with a hint of jasmine.
Brown Derby first picked up the Angels Landing wines back in 2009, with the release of the 2007 vintage Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. When we first tasted that wine, we could simply not believe how much quality was in a bottle of wine at this price point – “amazed” is the word that would sum it all up. To make a long story short, we bought all we could get our hands on and sat back and watched as one happy customer after the next walked out with a case upon case of Angels Landing Cabernet. It was a very strong debut for what soon became our top-selling wine ever and remains in the top ten sellers to this day!

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley  17.96
Deep Black garnet in color with a nose of plums, black cherries and spice. High quality Napa Cabernet from the best vineyards in Napa with specially selected lots used in the final barrels. Winemaker Notes: The flavors are abundant with red cherries, blackberries and nuances of sweet licorice and chocolate. The sweet oak in the finish leads to a satisfying end and a perfect match with red meats, fresh grilled tuna steaks and hard cheeses.

2012 Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast  17.96
Red berry fruit in the nose followed by layers of anise and baking spices. The palate reveals a rich depth of black cherries while the finish lingers with attractive toast notes and an excellent balance. Pairs nicely with a homemade meatloaf in mushroom gravy, lamb chops with grilled veggies or a firm piece of salmon, simply poached with rosemary.

2013 Chardonnay Napa Valley  17.96
Lush aromas of apricot, pear, lemon zest, vanilla that transforms to a lively but rich, creamy mouthfeel. On the palate, the flavors burst of ripe pear, white peach, passionfruit, honeydew melon and spicy vanilla.

2013 Sauvignon Blanc Napa Valley  17.96
The Napa Sauvignon Blanc has vibrant aromas of grapefruit, green fig, lemongrass and papaya that yield crisp pleasing flavors of grapefruit, papaya and green fig. Clean acidity and a lingering finish.

In New Zealand, the purity and intensity of the light is such that when overlooking the sea from the mountains, the sandy beaches look silver. This exceptional environment helps develop unique fruit flavors as breathtaking as those Silver Beaches.

Sourced from a single-vineyard estate on the cool, sunny, southern side of Marlborough’s Wairau Valley nestled on the terraces of the Omaka River. The vines are planted on free draining stony soils resultant from successive flood events and glacial outwash deposits over the previous 10,000 years.

Cool fermented in stainless steel with a variety of yeast to develop nuanced flavors and to retain the aromatic fruit characters; bottled young to preserve the fresh, vibrant style.

New Zealand’s best from Marlborough! Grapefruit and celery flavors with a hint of wild tropical fruit. Cool fermented in stainless steel with a variety of yeast to develop nuanced flavors and to retain the aromatic fruit characters; bottled young to preserve the fresh, vibrant style. This is a must try with ham and pineapple dishes, roasted chicken, little neck clams, oysters, grilled shrimp or BBQ chicken.

El Jamon

Wise Buys!

El Jamon is named after Spanish Jamón Serrano (literally mountain ham), a type of dry-cured ham traditionally served thinly sliced with olives, cheese and a glass of wine.

The cool nights and hot days of the D.O. (Denominación de Origin) aid this thick skinned black grape to ripen properly while maintaining its natural acidity.

El Jamon Crianza is made from the Tempranillo grape varietal. To be labeled as Crianza, the D.O. Cariñena requires a Crianza to age a minimum of 6 months in barrel and 12 months in bottle before being released from the winery. This required aging develops additional flavors and aromas.

2008 Crianza ___________ 10.96
Smooth and rather lush for this price point. Nice spicy flavors and black pepper nuances throughout as it intertwines with the blackberry fruit. Grilled center cut pork chops and veal cubes skewered with cherry tomatoes and red and green peppers makes this a match in heaven

2012 Garnacha _______________ 8.96
Lots of violets in the opening aromas with a concentration of ripe cherries. The fruit flavors of blackberries and candied cherries are abundant. The soft tannins and a lovely spice nuance leads to the velvety and lingering finish. Great with grilled fish, lamb and medium rare grilled porterhouses.

Carl Sittmann

Aromatic & Fruity.

Carl Sittmann wines are named after a local wine merchant who founded a winery in 1879. Carl was dedicated to producing high quality wine that can be enjoyed daily by everyone. Today, Carl Sittmann continues to produce high quality wines that everyone can enjoy. The grapes are sourced from dedicated growers in some of Germany’s most respected wine regions.

2013 Riesling ___________ 8.96
One of the best selling Rieslings with its fresh approach. Soft and delicate with a floral aroma and a creamy texture. Plenty of ripeness and sweet fruit. Juicy and lip-smacking with flavors of peaches, grapefruit, honey and figs. Harvested from steep sloped vineyards with maximum sun exposure. Try it with grilled shrimp and pineapples on a skewer or as an aperitif with havarti and flatbreads.

2013 Riesling Late Harvest __________ 10.96
Honeysuckle, melons, mangoes and soft pear flavors all come alive in this clean and well made delight from Germany. A treat with sweet and sour pork, triple coconut cake with a tangy pineapple icing or at the end of a good meal with a small bowl of fresh picked raspberries.

2012 Sweet Red ___________ 8.96
Luxuriously sweet with an intense bouquet...fragrant and noble with a fine, fruity aroma. Sweet with ripe blackberry flavors with a little strawberry jelly/jam in the middle with a fruit filled finish. Goes well with spicy and Asian themed foods. Serve it chilled. Introduce this to your friends and allow them to broaden horizons; especially the novice who claims they don’t “like” red wine.
Ocaso

They do it right!

2013 Cabernet Sauvignon __________ 9.96
Deep and rich with plenty of spice and black fruit with a smoky, coffee-like finish and a nice paring with chicken-on-the-bone dishes, beef stroganoff and veal chops topped with chopped arugula salad.

2013 Malbec  __________ 9.96
Carefully selected vineyards promotes the richness and complexity of this gem! Very toasty, offering aromas of mocha and spice. The flavors are deep and lush with notes of raspberries, figs, plums, chocolate and a splash of coffee. A real treat with shell steaks grilled medium rare with shitake mushrooms, center cut pork chops with glazed carrots and steamed asparagus and Parmesan encrusted tilapia with fresh cut green beans and orzo boiled al dente in chicken stock.

2008 Gran Reserva Red Blend ______ 19.96
Delightful flavors of raspberry, plum, fresh roasted coffee and vanilla beans with sweet toast and ripe tannins in the back end. This is a wine that will continue to evolve yet you can pop the cork tonight and enjoy with a nice piece of red meat, tuna, or veal shanks.

Wine Access System

“...the most transformational and exciting new product for wine lovers that has been developed or invented in the last 30-plus years.” Robert M. Parker, Jr

The Coravin Wine Access System enables wine enthusiasts to freely explore their collection glass by glass over multiple occasions, without committing to the whole bottle. Unlike preservation systems, which require the cork to be pulled and allow oxygen to enter the bottle, Coravin leaves the cork in place to continue protecting the wine, allowing you to pour from the same bottle weeks or months later.

Founded in 2004 by entrepreneur Paul McBride and vineyard manager Ryan Johnson, Grand Rêve (Now Force Majeure) introduces a new collaborative approach to winemaking in Washington State. Ryan Johnson has been growing wine grapes on Red Mountain for 11 vintages and is the vineyard manager for Ciel du Cheval, Cadence Cara Mia, Quilceda Galitzine Estate, and DeLille Grand Ciel vineyards, all located within Washington’s famed Red Mountain AVA.

By utilizing several of Washington State’s most accomplished winemakers: each with prowess in different winemaking styles, combined with their finest cultivated fruit, they achieve world-class quality across multiple varietals. This effort is called the Grand Rêve Collaboration Series, and its all-star cast includes Ben Smith (Collaboration I), Ross Mickel (Collaboration II), Mark McNeilly (Collaboration III), Carolyn Lakewold (Collaboration IV), Chris Gorman (Collaboration V), and James Mantone (Collaboration VI).

Taylor Fladgate Scion

“For lovers of tawny Port, “old and rare” generally meant one that had been aged in wood for 40 years—until now. Taylor Fladgate has just introduced Scion, the oldest and rarest Port available on the market today. Scion’s story sounds like a wine collector’s fantasy: Made from grapes harvested in 1855, before phylloxera decimated the vineyards of Europe, it was aged in wood for over 150 years. The precious Port was held in one family’s cellar in Portugal’s Douro Valley, with only a small quantity sold to Winston Churchill.

Unlike most tawnies, which are a blend of different vintages, this one is from a single vintage. When the remaining heirs of a Douro family offered the casks to Taylor Fladgate Partnership Winemaker David Guimaraens and CEO Adrian Bridge, a tasting revealed both a nutty, toffee-like sweetness and bright acidity. Although there may well be other wines this old stored in cellars throughout Europe, it’s unlikely that any of them are still in perfectly drinkable condition. Befitting a wine with such provenance, Scion is presented in a handmade, 19th century-style wooden box, which houses both a hand-blown crystal decanter and a limited-edition, illustrated leather-bound book detailing the wine’s history. Only 100 bottles are available in the United States.” Wine Enthusiast

Conditions of Sale for Pre-1980 Vintage Ports:

- Before 1975, Vintage Port was commonly bottled in London, thus they may not have what you consider to be standard labels. They may even be typed.
- It’s common for the labels to be worn (with scratches and/or small tears) and have dried stains on them.
- The capsules may be worn, slightly torn or have dried stains on them.
- The Portuguese strip of authenticity, usually located under the capsule, may be worn, torn or missing.
- The bottles are commonly dusty.
- The corks are generally quite fragile and might crumble upon opening.
- Sediment should be expected - the older the wine, the more sediment.
- Fill levels will vary - for example a 1970 Vintage is 40+ years old thus a mid-shoulder level is considered acceptable.
O’Shaughnessy

“One of the Superstar Estates on Howell Mountain.” Wine Advocate

“For years, the O’Shaughnessy family sold much of their fruit to Beringer, but they are now making some estate-bottled wines. This relatively new operation appears to be off to a flying start. Winemaker Sean Capiaux (who has his own Pinot Noir operation) is doing some stunning work with this 35-acre mountain vineyard, planted with 29 acres of Cabernet and the rest other Bordeaux varieties. There is also a small cuvée (under 1,000 cases) of fabulous Cabernet Sauvignon from Mt. Veeder...” Wine Advocate

Fog Mountain

A Clear Value!

Fog Mountain’s mission is to preserve Mother Nature and to protect the vineyards. The fog and the mountain are integral to the terroir that creates fine wines. As stewards of the land, we understand the essential role the fog plays in cooling the vines and preserving their flavors over a long ripening period, while the slopes of the mountain offers the unique soil and climate ideally-suited for responsible farming and fine wines.

2012 Geyserville Cellars Old Vine Zinfandel
Sonoma County  ____________________  17.96
Sourced from old-vine fruit at top sites across Sonoma Valley; the intensity of flavor from those vines first comes through on the nose with aromas of black fruits and spice. This rich wine follows up on the palate with blackberry and pepper notes and a very lengthy finish.

2012 Foxglove Zinfandel Paso Robles _______ Sale *13.97
The 2012 Zinfandel is gorgeous. Sweet red berries, leather, mint, tobacco and cedar are some of the notes that emerge from the glass in a floral, unoaked Zinfandel with distinct Pinot-inflected overtones. This is another superb value from Foxglove." Antonio Galloni

2011 Baus Family Private Reserve Series Zinfandel Sonoma Valley ____________________________ 14.96
Spicy with wild berries, white pepper and green tea leaves. The briary black fruit is dominating. Long and satisfying with a deep, dark finish. A lot of wine for the money. Pairs nicely with short ribs, flank steaks, venison and also a treat with a simple grilled burger.

2012 Precedent Zinfandel Evangelho Vineyard __________________________________Sale *27.97
(175 cases produced)
Planted in 1890, the Evangelho Vineyard is a viticultural treasure and one of the last of a dying breed. Head trained, own-rooted and dry farmed - these ancient vines have been farmed by the Evangelho Family for decades. Our Zinfandel (intermixed with Mataro, Carignane and even some Palomino and Moscat) was fermented with native yeast and aged in older French oak to preserve the unique expression of this sandy, alluvial fan.

2012 Perseverance Zinfandel Old Vines Lodi ___  9.96
Ripe forward fruit with polished tannins is the gateway to this great Zin! Plenty of plum, black cherry and spice flavors throughout your glass. Mocha latte, toasted marshmallow, sweetened cranberry and white pepper bring it all together in the end with a little brambly nuance. Serve it with roasted pork dishes, Italian sweet sausages on seeded semolina bread, standing rib roasts and braised beef ribs with a Zinfandel reduction sauce.

2012 Seghesio Zinfandel Sonoma County  ___ Sale *17.97
"Jammed with zesty fruit, offering bold blackberry and licorice aromas and rich, well structured black cherry, smoky pepper and grilled anise flavors. Drink now through 2019." Rated 90/100, Wine Advocate

2012 Chardonnay Le Souvenir Sierra Madre ______________ *84.95
20-year-old Wente clone vines provide the foundation of this classic Chardonnay. An aroma of alpine flowers rise through mineral notes of broken stone and granite. The palate is velvety and generous but is light on its feet with a zesty, refreshing acidity, with a touch of vanilla and a long finish. Succulent and fresh. 65% New French oak yet the oak is nuanced. Rated 94/100, Wine Advocate

2012 Pinot Noir Happiness Hilliard Bruce Vineyard ___ *89.95
Highly aromatic, with fresh-picked raspberries on the nose and secondary notes of vanilla bean and Bing cherry. Complex, medium-bodied, and balanced, this blend of 667, 777, and Calera reflects with Burgundian precision the sandy soils and cool temperatures of the Santa Rita Hills. Formerly “known as” Alegria, this is probably the best we have ever made from this vineyard. A Charmer. Rated 95/100, Wine Advocate

2012 Pinot Noir Seabiscuit, Zotovich Vineyard __*94.95
Intense framboise notes on the nose announce this powerful yet refined Pinot Noir. Deep, ruby-red color in the glass, and the palate is warm, rich, and textured. There is tannic strength here, but it is the dark cherry and raspberry notes that linger pleasurably in the mouth. Like many of the 2012 wines, I believe this vintage is the best yet of “Seabiscuit.” Muscle and volume meet a generous heart. Rated 96/100, Wine Advocate

2012 Pinot Noir Suerte, Solomon Hills Vineyard _____________ *94.95
Solomon Hills is a stunning, one-of-a-kind property, and this wine captures that in its distinction amongst my Santa Maria Valley Pinot Noir's. Highly complex, compact and uniformed, notes of strawberry, rose petal, and gunpowder work together wholesomely. The ripe fruit flavors of wild raspberry are supported by beautiful acid: intensity meets elegance. From day-one of harvest, this fruit impressed me tremendously, and it remains multifaceted in the bottle. Great Wine. Rated 96/100, Wine Advocate

Foxglove

“…These are among the finest values readers will find any where in the world.” Wine Advocate

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon Paso Robles
“Foxglove’s 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon is without question one of the finest values in California. Dark red cherry, plum, grilled herbs, smoke and tobacco are some of the many notes that inform this vibrant, polished impeccable Cabernet Sauvignon from Vineyards in Paso Robles. Aging in steel keeps the flavors fresh and vibrant throughout.” Antonio Galloni

2011 Zinfandel Paso Robles
“The Zinfandel is a gorgeous, mouthfilling red from vineyards in Paso Robles. The decision to pick a little early results in a Zinfandel that is lacking a bit of varietal character, but makes up for that with its energy and salinity. Although not especially typical, its hard to argue with the quality of what is in the bottle.” Antonio Galloni

2012 Chardonnay Central Coast
“Lemon oil, white flowers, mint and slate meld together in the 2012 Chardonnay. Racy and beautifully layered on the palate, this tank-fermented, non-malo Chardonnay delivers exceptional quality for the money.” Antonio Galloni

Brick House

Certified organic since 1990... Demeter Biodynamic since 2005

“The world of wines needs more people like Doug Tunnell. Having had a successful career as a television news foreign correspondent, Tunnell returned to his native Oregon and started a ‘farm,’ as he calls it. Certified organic since 1990, Brick House Vineyards produces Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, and Gamay Noir (of Beaujolais fame) that have soul. A difficult quality to describe, a wine with soul (or ‘character’ if you prefer), is never squeaky clean (yes, obsessive/compulsive Californian winemakers may find hint of Brett or VA in some of Tunnell’s wines), smells and tastes as though it was made of the land (and not in a lab), and reveals both its terroir and its vintage. Not all wines with soul are successful, but when they are they can be awe-inspiring. Tunnell, a gentle bear of a man, is dedicated to producing soulful wines on his ‘farm’ in a manner that enhances nature, not harms it.” Wine Advocate

“Marching to the beat of a different drummer largely unknown to any other winemaker in California…” Robert Parker

“This idiosyncratic wine producer has been making wine for as long as I have been writing about it. He does everything with a flair, and the results are some of the more original wines for his extraordinary Syrah called Orion but also produces some wacky yet delicious blends, such as the non-vintage Pleiades, a brilliant Petite Sirah called Sirius. These are extraordinarily pure, natural expressions of winemaking… primitive in the best sense of the word.” Wine Advocate

Sauvignon Blanc draws its name from the French word sauvage, meaning “wild”, and its vines must be carefully tended to prevent overly herbaceous flavors from emerging in the grapes. The best bottlings offer subtle notes of hay, grass, smoke, and green herbs.

7 Bottles to Buy

- 2013 Angels Landing Sauvignon Blanc _________ 17.96
  The stainless steel fermentation gives this wine a clean and crisp feel with a note of elder and exotic fruits in the bouquet. Well balanced with its straw yellow color inviting you to its round and flavorful palate. Lots of mangoes and grapefruit lead to the satisfying finish. A perfect match with soft cheeses, scallops, paella, and shrimp infused risotto.

- 2012 Banshee Sauvignon Blanc Napa Valley _________ 17.96
  Here’s another hit from Banshee Wines! Zippy enough to work as an aperitif but with enough spine to be enjoyed with all manner of fare. Great Napa Valley Sauvignon Blanc.

- 2012 Baus Family Sauvignon Blanc Sonoma Valley _________ 14.96
  Appetizing notes of lemongrass, citrus, guava and melons with a tangy, fresh mouth feel. Works nicely with clams casino, linguine in lemon cream sauce with grilled shrimp and roasted chicken with a light brown gravy over wide noodles.

- 2014 Domaine Astralis Sauvignon Blanc _________ 14.96
  The Marlborough growing region of New Zealand’s South Island is shaped by rolling mountains and sun-drenched coastline creating a unique terroir that provides the perfect growing conditions to create exceptionally balanced Sauvignon Blanc. Domaine Astralis sources grapes from only the best vineyards sites for this one of a kind wine. The grapes are harvested early in the morning and cool fermented in stainless steel to maintain the fresh fruit flavors and crisp acidity.

- 2013 Matetic EQ Sauvignon Blanc _________ 14.99
  The 2013 EQ Coastal Sauvignon Blanc has to be one of the finest Sauvignons I tasted from Chile. The 2013 was a cool vintage in Casablanca, and produced a wine that has fresh, marine and herbal aromas, all of them in a subtle, elegant way. It is both fresh and ripe, with a light to medium-bodied palate showing very good acidity, compact with clean, delineated flavors (the archetypal gooseberries) and good underlying minerality making it very supple and tasty. Somehow this wine seems more complete and nuanced than most other Sauvignons I tasted. I’d love to see how it ages, as the balance promises a bright future. Great! I could hardly believe the price - what a bargain! Wine Advocate, rated 93/100

A perfect match with soft cheeses, scallops, paella, and shrimp infused risotto.

- 2013 Silver Beach Sauvignon Blanc _________ 12.96
  New Zealand’s best from Marlborough! Grapefruit and celery flavors with a hint of wild tropical fruit! Cool fermented in stainless steel with a variety of yeast to develop nuanced flavors and to retain the aromatic fruit characters; bottled young to preserve the fresh, vibrant style. This is a must try with ham and pineapple dishes, roasted chicken, little neck clams, oysters, grilled shrimp or BBQ chicken.

Established in 1982 by Craig and Claudia Broadley, Broadley Vineyards is a small, efficient winery capable of producing up to 5,000 cases of Pinot Noir annually. The family’s fabled 1994 Claudia’s Choice put Broadley Vineyards on the map; the Claudia’s Choice is a perennial favorite, and today loyal followers clamor for the winemaker’s expression of each new vintage. A barrel selection from the 2008 Broadley Estate Pinot Noir was recently named one of the top ten 2008 Oregon Pinot Noirs by The New York Times.

Elegance and Affordability.

Betts Family Winery

An Incredible Track Record.

“When a super-trained, world-wise palate finds those grapes, refines his wine making over several vintages, and mercilessly reconfigures his cellar management to extract every nuance of flavor imaginable, then you have something truly special. You have wines that go beyond showing really good grapes, that reflect a more precise intelligence at work.

Bob Betts is best known as the vice president of education and research for Stimson Lane, the company that owns Chateau Ste. Michelle, Columbia Crest, Snoqualmie and more. He is a certified Master of Wine, the highest (and most difficult) diploma that the wine world can offer. He and his wife, Cathy, started their Betts Family Winery in 1998.” Seattle Times

The Beauty of Blends! New Arrivals!

A Bevy of Best Blends!
We’ve been on a big blend bender of late: we highly recommend each of these artful mergers of compatible grape varieties for a tremendous range of fine flavors.

7 Bottles to Buy

2012 Banshee Mordecai Red Blend ________ 21.96
Winery Notes: Bold with panoply of dark and red berry fruit but structured enough to be a serious wine, the Banshee Mordecai is like nothing else on the market. The blend struts some the best Syrah in Califorinia, a Turley single vineyard Zin source, Napa Mourvedre, Grenache from Paso and a few other bits and pieces that worked well with the rest of the blend.

2011 Chateau Puech Haut Prestige _______ Sale *18.97
"A sensational offering from proprietor Gerard Bru, the 2011 Prestige is the estate’s least expensive wine...A blend of 60-75-year-old vine Grenache (55%) and 40-year old Syrah (45%), all grown on limestone soils dominated by the famous large rocks (galets roulés) also found in parts of Chateauneuf du Pape...This is the "real deal." Drink it over the next 4-6 years."
Wine Advocate

2011 Culprit Red Table Wine North Coast ______ 15.96
The Culprit is blended from a whole kitchen sink of varietals, much like Orin Swift’s "The Prisoner". The great news is that it’s half the price of the Prisoner, and you’d be hard pressed to find much of a difference in quality between the two. The Culprit is a blend predominantly of Syrah, Zinfandel, and Petite Sirah, with six other varietals thrown into the mix to give it plenty of complexity. This is a big, bold, and intense wine!

2012 Fog Mountain Red Blend California ______ 12.96
Fog Mountain’s California Field Blend was produced from carefully selected Zinfandel, Syrah, Petit Syrah, Merlot, and Cabernet Sauvignon grapes grown throughout California. The wine offers aromas of raspberry and red plum while the palate show cases flavors of cherry, blueberry and freshly cracked white pepper. Exceptionally balanced with a long, velvety finish, this medium-bodied wine pairs perfectly with red or meat sauce pastas, BBQ pork and roast beef.

2013 Gran Passione Veneto Rosso _______ Sale *14.97
Gran Passione is a rich, deeply-colored blend of Merlot (60%) and Corvina (40%) grown in select vineyards in Italy’s Veneto region, the area around Venice. Intense red-purple color, tending towards amber with aging. The wine is full-bodied with good structure. There’s an admirably fine balance between soft tannins and acidity. Generous palate of ripe red and black fruits, considerable length. Fantastic accompaniment to roasted or grilled meats; ideal with game, but excellent with mature, hard cheeses.

2010 Tenuta Marsiliana Birillo ____________ Sale *22.97
"The 2010 Birillo is a well-priced 60-40 blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot that opens with a forest-like note, plus mineral and earthy berry scents. The palate feels crisps and silky and there’s a touch of raw grittiness to the tannins. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2017." Rated 92/100, Wine Spectator

Christophe Baron, Consultant.

“Reynvaan Family Vineyards produces its wines from organically farmed, estate-grown fruit. The Reynvaans have essentially entrusted their entire operation to Christophe Baron of Cayuse. It is the only winery with which he consults because he has been given carte blanche to go for the best. Based on these wines, it was a no-brainer of a decision.” Wine Advocate

“If you’re a fan of the wild, slightly feral aromatics offered by Cayuse, these wines need to be on your short list. Highly recommended.” Rhone Report
Tor Kenward, the long-time PR rep for the Beringer empire, has his own project for a number of years and he continues to build an impressive portfolio of fascinating wines that reflect his love of Napa Valley an his own personal preference for complex wines. Incidentally, he has one of the great wine collections of Napa and he is one of those true connoisseurs who is happy to share his best bottles. While production levels for the wines in this portfolio are relatively small, all of them are top-notch, interesting efforts.

Rickshaw wines is dedicated to producing the best wines at their price point. Period. They are equally dedicated to helping carry our fellow man, thus the name. 5% of all profits will be donated to food based charities in the area where the wine is sold.

Comments from a fellow retailer on the West Coast.
“From the three talented young men from Banshee--Noah, Steve and Baron--we have the 2010 vintage of Rickshaw Pinot Noir, a superb follow-up to their ‘09 debut, which blew us away with its offering of a rich, high-caliber Sonoma Pinot delivered for a ridiculously inexpensive $15. Thanks to a cooler vintage with lower yields overall, while the ‘09 was all about rich, ripe fruit, ‘10 is more elegant and refined, and in many ways, more charming. Pretty cherry and wild strawberry aromas and flavors leap from the glass, accented by hints of clove, warm earth, and baking spices. The palate is juicy, with an unctuous core of red fruit that carries you through to a spice-kissed finish. Balanced and cleanly made, Rickshaw remains one of the most delightful California Pinot values in stock.”

2013 Chenin Blanc Sec Clements Hills  _____________ Sale *22.97 (250 cases produced)
“We harvested our Chenin Blanc from a vineyard planted in 1980, on the sandy banks of Mokelumne River. The Clements Hills lie on the far east side of the vast Lodi appellation, as the Sierra Foothills begin their dramatic rise off the valley floor. These Silica and Quartz rich soils are especially suited for producing compelling white wines with grace and presence...Clear, near green-gold in color with aromas of Meyer lemon, flint and bees wax. There is great texture and hint of saline minerality to the wines from this area. Bright acidity with medium weight, this is a classic rendition of dry Chenin Blanc that drinks well in its youth, but has enough nerve to merit some cellar time.” Winery notes

2012 Precedent Old Vine White Wirz Vineyard  ______________________ Sale *24.97 (45 cases produced)
The Wirz Vineyard is head-trained, dry-farmed Riesling, planted in 1952 on a bed of decomposed Granite from the Gabilan Mountains. Native yeast fermentation in old French oak and full malolactic have produced a wine that is delicious, precise and truly speaks to its origins. No fining and no filtration have preserved the exuberant character of this uniquely Californian wine. Finished dry.

2012 Precedent Zinfandel Evangelho Vineyard  ____________________ Sale *27.97 (118 cases produced)
Planted in 1890, the Evangelho Vineyard is a viticultural treasure and one of the last of a dying breed. Head trained, own-rooted and dry farmed - these ancient vines have been farmed by the Evangelho Family for decades. Our Zinfandel (intermixed with Mataro, Carignane and even some Palomino and Moscat) was fermented with native yeast and aged in older French oak to preserve the unique expression of this sandy, alluvial fan.

Domaine du Mas Blanc

A True Reference Point.

“Dr. Andre Parce and his son, Jean-Michel, are among the most highly esteemed winemakers in all of France. Their wines are found on more two and three-star French restaurants’ wine lists than any other producer’s. Parce, an energetic and enthusiastic promoter of the under-rated wines made from grapes grown on the terraced, hillside vineyards of Collioure and Banyuls, produces several cuvées of dry red wines from the Collioure appellation, and a number of cuvées of France’s answer to vintage port, the sweet, late-harvested Banyuls that must be tasted to be believed. These are true rarities, available only in very limited quantities.” Wine Advocate

Domaine Tempier

“Unquestionably the best producer of Bandol.” Wine Advocate

“One of the leading domaines in Bandol, Domaine Tempier is, without a doubt, the most visible producer from the appellation in the U.S. marketplace today. I think this is well-deserved (and a good thing for Bandol), as the wines are at the top of the hierarchy in terms of quality. The estate has been in the Peyraud family for generations and has a long, storied history that’s beautifully documented in Kermit Lynch’s newsletters and book, Adventures on the Wine Route (an absolute must read for any wine lover). The family is still going strong today, yet the wines are now made by Daniel Ravier. At this tasting, all of the wines showed brilliantly and possessed a surprising level of polish and texture, with no rusticity or coarseness at all. In addition to the wines I was able to review here, they also produce a white (60% Clairette, 19% Bourboulenc, 18% Ugni Blanc and the balance Marsanne), and a very limited red, the Cabassaou (95% Mourvedre, 4% Syrah and a splash of Cinsault).” 90 Points, Jeb Dunnuck, eRobertParker.com, February 2014

Rosé became popular in the United States with the introduction of the now-ubiquitous White Zinfandel; however, rosé wine has long been a favorite in other winemaking regions of the world. Rosé (Rosado in Spain, Rosato in Italy) is typically produced by leaving the wine in contact with the grape skins for an extended period of time, but not for so long that it becomes a true red wine. The color of rosé wine may vary depending upon winemaking techniques and grape variety, and can vary from a hint of pink to a deep ruby red. The style of rosé also varies and may be sweet to bone-dry, still or sparkling. The diversity of rosé wine makes it an excellent option for enjoyment as an aperitif, or with meals, the whole year round.

Think Pink

7 Bottles to Buy

- 2013 Banshee Rosé of Pinot Noir (from Sonoma County, California) 17.96
  - Once again this is a wine of flirtatious hints. The flavors are all early spring freshness as opposed to mid-summer lushness. White flowers and apricot blossom aromas lead into kumquat, wild mountain strawberry, stone fruits and mint flavors all riding atop a pringly spine of acidity. Open bottles disappear quickly.

- 2013 Borsao Garnacha Rosado (from Campo de Borja, Spain) 7.99
  - The grapes for this wine come from vineyards planed between 1981 and 1986 on chalky soil of alluvial terraces at 1200 ft in elevation and the more complex soils of the hillside vineyards on the Moncayo mountain range 1950 ft in elevation. The wine is luminescent red in color with a strong aroma of red berries. The wine is young and fresh in the mouth, well-balanced with its acidity, rich in floral nuances and spices.

- 2013 Château d’Esclans Whispering Angel Côtes de Provence Rosé 19.99
  - Rated 90 points, James Suckling: “A tangy white with light strawberry jam and lemon character. Full and crisp with a cherry skin, clean finish. Always delicious.”

- 2013 Château Pradeaux Bandol Rosé 32.99
  - (from Bandol, France) The Bandol Rosé from Pradeaux is perhaps the most serious wine in this category. Robust, rich, and complex with an ability to age gracefully, this wine is based on Cinsault (50%) and Mourvèdre (50%), taking its slight orange tint from the latter cépage. The younger vines of the domaine (average age: 25 years) are utilized to produce a rare rosé with staying power and exceptional complexity.

- 2013 Domaine Bart Marsannay Rosé 18.99
  - (from Côtes de Nuits, France) Marsannay Rosé is unique in that it is the only Burgundian region that may produce a village-level appellation rosé. The Domaine Bart Marsannay Rosé is a soft and fruity wine, expressing lively flavors of peach, strawberry and other unique flavors of Pinot Noir wine. The palate is full, fresh and delicious and may be enjoyed with charcuterie, white meats, crab, delicate fish and also with spicy dishes.

- 2013 Miraval Côtes de Provence Rosé 2013 Sale 24.97
  - (from Côtes de Provence, France) Rated 90 points, International Wine Cellar: “Pale orange. Fresh tangerine, strawberry and white flowers on the fragrant, mineral-accented nose. Silky and precise, offering tany red fruit flavors that are lifted and sharpened by a white pepper nuance. Finishes clean, nervy and long, with excellent clarity and lingering minerality. This suave wine has the power to work with rich foods and the energy to give pleasure by itself.”

- 2013 Tranche Cellars Pink Pape Rosé 16.99
  - (from Yakima Valley, Washington) Pale salmon in color with a light pink hue. Delicate aromas of rose petal and melon, lemon peel and fresh forest fruits. The wine is lively upon entry, with plump red berry flavors providing good weight to the mid-palate. Bright citrus acidity creates balance and focus, drawing out the palate to a mouthwatering finish.

Almaviva

Nothing short of Spectacular.

Almaviva is the name of both winery and wine born of the joint venture between Baron Philippe de Rothschild and Viña Concha y Toro. Almaviva is the only non-Bordeaux produce to be handled by the famed French negociants and marketed by them alongside grand châteaux wines so worthy of their reputation. Their aim was to create the first Bordeaux Grand Cru Classé equivalent in Chile. With 40 hectares of Concha y Toro’s best Puerto Alto vineyards being dedicated to the task and the steady hand of Patrick Leon (winemaker at Mouton and Opus One), the results have been nothing short of spectacular.

Bodegas Vega Sicilia

Still the most prestigious wine estate in Spain.

“Still the most prestigious wine estate in Spain (deservedly so), Vega Sicilia is located 100 miles north of Madrid in the Duero River valley on the high remote plateau of Castilla y Leon at 700 meters of altitude. There are currently 250 hectares under vine. In a good year, 20,000 cases are produced. Valbuena (typically 75% Tinto Fino and 25% Merlot and Malbec) is released after 3 years in cask and 2 years in bottle while Unico (typically 70% Tinto Fino, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 10% Merlot, Malbec, and Albillo) is always at least 10 years old, and as much as 25 years old depending upon the vintage and the wine’s ability to age.” Wine Advocate

Château Des Jacques

Moulin-A-Vent

The historic Château des Jacques estate, located in the village of Romanèche-Thorins in the Moulin-à-Vent appellation, is widely recognized as the most prestigious estate in Beaujolais. It was purchased by Louis Jadot in 1996. Estate-grown fruit is cultivated on 196 acres in the Moulin-à-Vent an Morgon crus. Under the guidance of Jacques Lardiére and Guillaume de Castelnau, Château des Jacques’ practices have been attributed with revolutionizing the winemaking of Beaujolais. They have notably raised the bar, applying Burgundian methods like cold-soaking the grapes, using wild yeasts and extending fermentation longer than is typically practiced in Beaujolais, in open-top containers followed by aging in oak barrels.

Domaine Les Pallières

“I remember the first time I visited Domaine Les Pallières. I found the southern Rhône’s landscape fascinating—extensive green plains akin to an ocean of vineyards, dotted with picturesque old villages atop gently sloping hills. We drove on a road leading up one of these hills and in the distance I spotted Gigondas, the village. It looked ancient and abandoned, with only a handful of structures standing, some minuscule houses built of stone around the church steeple. It seemed impossible that any life could exist here, but I wouldn’t find out, as the car continued into the countryside and began turning off on a series of increasingly small, rustic roads. Finally we came upon a weathered sign in the shape of a wine bottle pointing down a narrow road. It read: Les Pallières. At that point—too young to understand the complex intricacies of terroir—I thought, “Okay, I guess this is a pretty good spot to make great wine.” Since that day, several vintages have been harvested, vinified, aged, and bottled at Les Pallières. Having tasted these and many other wonderful bottles of Gigondas from the domaine, I can affirm that it is indeed a great site for producing full-bodied, age-worthy reds. The environment in which the grapes are grown undoubtedly plays a role: the Provençal sun shines down to give ripe fruit flavored by the surrounding cherry trees, lavender, and herbs de Provence. High altitude vineyards in the shadow of the jagged Dentelles de Montmirail add a freshness and minerality that contribute to the wine’s food-friendliness and ageability. The expertise of Daniel and Frédéric Brunier, two master vignerons, certainly doesn’t hurt, either.” Kermit Lynch, Importer

“Tranche Cellars consistently delivers serious, impeccably made wines that over deliver.” Wine Advocate

2011 Chardonnay Celilo Vineyard ________ 39.99
“A fragrant and compelling nose with lifted aromas of white peach and nectarine, white flowers and crushed oyster shell. Intense stone fruit flavors saturate the palate with a tremendous depth of flavor. The high natural acidity of the Celilo fruit brings a firm grip while light toasted elements give warmth and structure. The wine finishes with excellent length and saline minerality.” Rated 94/100, Wine Advocate

2012 Pinot Gris Columbia Valley ________ 18.99
“An aromatically compelling wine with fresh kiwi, pineapple, honeydew melon and flinty mineral qualities. Full and textured on the palate, with ripe tropical fruit flavors held firmly together by a strong citrus acid frame. River rock minerality persists throughout while toasted honey notes gently warm the finish.” Rated 92/100, Wine Enthusiast

2013 Pink Pape Blackrock Vineyard ________ 16.99
“Pale salmon in color with a light pink hue. Delicate aromas of rose petal and melon, lemon peel and fresh forest fruits. The wine is lively upon entry, with plump red berry flavors providing good weight to the mid-palate. Bright citrus acidity creates balance and focus, drawing out the palate to a mouthwatering finish.” Rated 90/100, Wine Enthusiast

2012 Cabernet Sauvignon California ________ 9.96
Rich and full with black cherry flavors followed by hints of exotic spices and plums. Nicely balanced with backbone. The finish is full and satisfying allowing it work well with red meats, red-sauced pasta dishes and chicken sausages with sautéed onions and green peppers.

2013 Chardonnay California ________ 9.96
Ripe peaches, mango and pear notes introduce the vibrant mouth flavors of apples, lemons and sweet vanilla. Beautifully balanced. The creamy middle makes it a real treat and delightful with foods or even as an aperitif, with a slight chill. Pairs nicely with lemon chicken, swordfish kabobs and cheese spreads on flatbreads.

2012 Zinfandel Old Vine Lodi ________ 9.96
Ripe forward fruit with polished tannins is the gateway to this great Zin! Plenty of plum, black cherry and spice flavors throughout your glass. Mocha latte, toasted marshmallow, sweetened cranberry and white pepper bring it all together in the end with a little brambly nuance. Serve it with roasted pork dishes, Italian sweet sausages on seeded semolina bread, standing rib roasts and braised beef ribs with a Zinfandel reduction sauce.

2012 Burgundy

“…2012 must clearly be ranked amongst the most beautiful young Burgundies I have ever had the pleasure to taste. The vintage will be long remembered for the extremely short crop levels in Chablis, the Côte de Nuits and (particularly) the Côte de Beaune, but Mother Nature has at least compensated a bit for these very short yields with simply gorgeous wines of great seamless beauty.” John Gilman View From the Cellar

2010 Chateauneuf du Pape

2010 Alain Jaume Domaine Grand Veneur Châteauneuf-du-Pape ___________ 49.99
Rated 93 points in The Wine Advocate: “The 2010 Chateauneuf du Pape (70% Grenache, 20% Syrah and 10% Mourvedre) is an opaque purple-colored beauty revealing lots of creme de cassis, black raspberry, licorice and camphor notes. Sexy and full-throttle as well as supple and more evolved than many 2010 Chateauneufs, it can be enjoyed now and over the next 10-12 years.”

2010 Andre Brunel Les Cailloux Châteauneuf-du-Pape ____________ 54.99
Rated 93 points in The Wine Advocate: “The Les Cailloux 2010 Chateauneuf du Pape possesses a dense ruby/purple color as well as lots of gamy, meaty notes intermixed with bouquet garni, licorice, black currants and kirsch. Spicy, fat, fleshy and evolved and forward for a 2010, this full-throttle, hedonistic and intellectually pleasing Chateauneuf du Pape should drink well for 10-14 years.”

2010 Andre Brunel Les Cailloux Châteauneuf-du-Pape Cuvée
Centenaire _____________ 239.99
Rated 98-100 points, Rhone Report: “Even better and a monumental wine in the making, the profound 2010 Les Cailloux Châteauneuf-du-Pape Cuvée Centenaire (tasted just prior to bottling) smells of a Provençal street market and offers up gorgeous aromas kirsch, raspberry, dried flowers, spice-box, roasted meats, and licorice on the nose. Coming from a single plot of very old Grenache (there is a touch of Mourvedre in the blend) and aged all in tank, this exuberant, hedonistic-bent Châteauneuf-du-Pape is full-bodied on the palate and delivers a voluptuous, mouth filling texture, brilliant concentration, and a blockbuster finish. Ellipsing the ’07 and up there with the ’90 (I think even better), this is monumental stuff that every Châteauneuf-du-Pape lover needs to have in the cellar!”

2010 Château Beaucastel Châteauneuf-du-Pape ____________ mag. 229.99
2010 Château Beaucastel Châteauneuf-du-Pape _________ 3.0 L 699.95
Rated 95 points by Robert Parker in The Wine Advocate: “This is a gorgeous wine, a classic blend of 30% Grenache, 30% Mourvedre, 10% Syrah, 10% Counoise and the balance the other permitted varietals in the appellation. Deep purple, with loads of bouquet garni, beef blood, blackberry, kirsch, smoke and truffle, this wine is full-bodied, rich and showing even better than it did last year. I still think it needs 3-5 years of cellaring, and it should last for 25-30 years, as most of the top vintages of Beaucastel do.”

2010 Clos des Brusquières Châteauneuf-du-Pape ___________ 39.99
2010 Clos des Brusquières Châteauneuf-du-Pape ___________ mag. 89.99
Rated 93 points, Rhone Report: “The best vintage of this cuvée I’ve tasted, the 2010 Clos des Brusquières Châteauneuf-du-Pape is a knockout, traditional wine that offers up wildly perfumed aromas of peppercorns, saddle leather, wild herbs, and roasted meats (among other traditional southern Rhone styled aromas) to go with a medium to full-bodied, structured palate. A blend of 60% Grenache, 15% Syrah, 15% Mourvedre, and 10% Cinsault that is aged in a combination of foudre and concrete, this beautiful 2010 oozes Provençal character, has excellent richness and concentration, chewy tannin, and plenty of length. Give bottles 2-3 years in the cellar, and then drink them over the following 15+ years.”

2010 Cuvée du Vatican Châteauneuf-du-Pape Réserve Sixtine __ 59.99
Rated 93-95 points in The Wine Advocate: “In need of 4-5 years of cellaring, the infantile 2010 Chateauneuf du Pape Reserve Sixtine is a behemoth. Made from a blend similar to the 2009’s, the 2010 exhibits an opaque purple color in addition to a beautiful nose of melted licorice, blackberries, cassis, smoky barbecue embers, underbrush and soil overtones. Rich and full-bodied with a multilayered mouthfeel, this impressive, pure, well-built Chateauneuf will require patience. Anticipated maturity: 2020-2035.”

2010 Domaine de la Côte de L’Ange Châteauneuf-du-Pape Vieilles Vignes __________________________ 62.99
Rated 96 points in The Wine Advocate: “The 2010 Chateauneuf du Pape is a blend of 70% Grenache, 20% Mourvedre and 10% Syrah aged in a combination of cement and old wood foudres. The wine has a dense ruby/purple color and a classic nose of blueberries, blackberries, licorice, new saddle leather, roasted meats as well as pepper and spice. It is full-bodied, moderately tannic and impressive. Let it age for another 2-3 years and drink it over the following 15 or more.”

2010 Domaine de la Charbonnière Châteauneuf-du-Pape Les Hautes Brusquières Cuvée Spéciale _____________ 62.99
Rated 96 points in The Wine Advocate: “The sensational 2010 Chateauneuf du Pape Hautes Brusquières Cuvée Speciale explodes from the glass with aromas of roasted Provençal herbs/garrigue, cassis, blackberries, kirsch, loamy earth, and a subtle nuance of spring flowers. Full-bodied with superb definition, massive fruit concentration and a long finish displaying dazzling purity, texture and length, this sensational wine is one of the finest wines Domaine de la Charbonnière has yet produced. It should age gracefully for two decades.”

Rated 95 points in The Wine Advocate: “A brilliant effort, the 2010 Chateauneuf du Pape Vieilles Vignes is velvety textured and full-bodied, offering hints of sandy, loamy soils, licorice, kirsch and crushed rocks (minerality soars from the glass). Stunningly rich, layered and provocative, it is a classic wine of Provençal class, big, mouthfilling, chewy 2010 should drink well for 15-20+ years.”

2010 Châteauneuf du Pape

2010 Le Vieux Donjon Châteauneuf-du-Pape _______________________ 3.0L 749.99
Rated 96 points in The Wine Advocate: “The 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape is a traditionally made cuvée aged totally in tank and foudre. Its inky/ purple color is followed by a sweet bouquet of black olives, incense, blackberries, mulberries, black cherries and lavender. This perfumed, super-concentrated 2010 possesses good acidity, ripe tannin and a full-bodied, expansive mouthfeel. This mouth-coating, saturated, dense Châteauneuf du Pape has plenty of tannin to shed, so give it 3-4 years of cellaring, and drink it over the following two decades.”

2010 M. Chapoutier Châteauneuf-du-Pape Croix de Bois *84.95
Rated 94 points by Josh Raynolds in Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar: “Vivid ruby. A heady, seductive bouquet evokes black raspberry and cherry liqueur, potpourri and allspice, with a bright mineral overtone. Shows impressive clarity and energy, offering penetrating dark berry and floral pastille flavors that gain weight with air. Spreads out on the finish, which features soft tannins and a whiplash of sweet dark fruit. This wine was raised entirely in concrete.”

2010 Raymond Usseglio & Fils Châteauneuf-du-Pape
Cuvee Girard ______________________ 42.99
Rated 90-92 points, Wine Advocate: “The American importer produces a slightly different blend called Châteauneuf du Pape Cuvee Girard, and the 2009 and 2010 are essentially identical in quality. The 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape Girard reveals slightly more meatiness and garrigue notes than the 2009, but the two wines are similar in every other aspect. Full-bodied, rich and pure, it, like the 2009, will evolve over the next 10-15 years.”

2010 Rotem & Mounir Saouma Châteauneuf-du-Pape
Omnia ______________________________ *109.95
“Even more impressive, the 2010 Châteauneuf-du-Pape Omnia (same blend and élevage as the 2009) shows the class of the vintage with its purity, richness and length. Showing a clean, focused array of blackberry, currants, pepper, liquid rock and wild herbs on the nose, this full-bodied, structured 2010 is still tight and compact on the palate. Nevertheless, the quality is front and center. Give it another 3-4 years in the cellar and enjoy it through 2025 or beyond. Drink 2016-2025+.”
Rated 96/100, Wine Advocate

2010 Domaine Pierre Usseglio & Fils Châteauneuf-du-Pape
Cuvée de mon Aïeul _____________________________ 109.99

2010 Domaine Pierre Usseglio & Fils Châteauneuf-du-Pape
Cuvée de mon Aïeul _____________________________ 3.0L 569.99
Rated 97 points in The Wine Advocate: “The 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape Cuvee de Mon Aïeul (cropped at 12-16 hectoliters per hectare) comes from the estate’s finest vineyards in the southern part of the appellation (Les Grandes Serres), the eastern sector (the famed La Crau) and the northern sector (Guigasse). The wine is aged primarily in stainless steel tanks with a small percent (less than 20%) kept in 600-liter demi-muids. Despite the 16.5% natural alcohol, there is not a trace of heat in this wine. It is stunningly concentrated with great intensity as well as classic blueberry, pepper, incense, camphor, fig and licorice characteristics. Rich and full-bodied with slightly more freshness than their profound 2007, the Mon Aïeul should age effortlessly for two decades.”

2010 Domaine des Deux Frères ___________________________________ 199.99
Rated 96+ points in The Wine Advocate: “The 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape Reserve des Deux Freres is composed of 90% Grenache and 10% Syrah, and came in at 15.5% alcohol. In most vintages, this is basically the same cuvee as the Mon Aïeul but with more press wine and the use of small new oak casks for aging the Syrah component. Approximately 30% stems were used in the fermentation. The 2010 is closed and nearly inaccessible at present. Full-bodied and massive with an inky/purple color, it reveals notes of smoked meats, blackberries, blueberries, flowers and subtle toast in the background. An enormous unctuosity and viscosity give the wine a palate gripping mouthfeel as the tannins are coated with glycerin. This brilliant wine needs at least 5-7 years of cellaring, and should keep for three decades thereafter.”

Burgundy’s Grande Dame

No name enlivens and ignites a discussion of Burgundy as quickly as Madame Lalou Bize-Leroy. She is unrelenting in every aspect, from personality to charm and quality to the very wine in the bottle. The Leroy family’s 50% ownership of Domaine Romanée-Conti gave Madame Leroy ample ability to amass the deepest and most revered cellar in Burgundy over the last 60+ years. speculation is rampant about its size and holdings. Guesses range from 1.5 to 2.5 million bottles. Only one person knows for sure. With an astute (and legendary) palate and relentless standards, she hunts out some of the most surprising and thrilling parcels each vintage, and never fails to impress with her depth and understanding of the most hidden corners of Burgundy’s terroir.

Cristom Vineyards

Rich Track Record of Excellence.

Cristom Vineyards hangs its hat on a well-earned reputation for making exceptional Pinot Noir. Their rich track record of excellence is the result of a twenty-year collaboration between three men—an engineer, a biochemist and a farmer—who are, first and foremost, stewards of the land. Strengthened by an independent and pragmatic spirit, and the belief that great wine begins in the vineyard, their partnership illustrates the unique blend of tradition, modernity and finesse that defines Cristom’s wines.

Fifty Shades of Grey

Seductive White Silk & Red Satin.

WHITE SILK
Floral aromatics of lychee, honey and pear lead off this white blend, they are tempered by flavors of crisp grapefruit, mineral and lush pear with a faint hint of butterscotch.
White Silk is a blend of primarily Gewürztraminer and Sauvignon Blanc. This wine was fermented cool, under 50 degrees F, and aged in stainless steel to preserve its delicate and rich character.

RED SATIN
This decadent blend has flavors of black cherry, cocoa powder, creamy caramel and vanilla, leather and clove spice.
Red Satin is a blend of primarily Petite Sirah and Syrah, it was aged in a combination of new and seasoned French oak barrels.

The Hilt champions Pinot Noir and Chardonnay from the climate margins of California’s coastal wine growing regions —Santa Barbara County’s Sta. Rita Hills and Santa Maria Valley. AVA’s prominent among them. As hinted at in the name, The Hilt goes “all the way” in its quest for expression and quality; nothing is held back in terms of effort.

“The Hilt is a new project headed by Stan Kroenke, Matt Dees and Armand de Maigret, the same team behind Jonata. This strong set of new releases suggests the future is very bright for The Hilt.” Antonio Galloni

Rotie Cellars

Pure Character.

“These knockout wines are made by Sean Boyd and offer classic, fresh profiles that deliver brilliant levels of fruit and texture. During my tastings with Sean, he also opened bottles of his 2007 Southern and Northern Blends, both of which were aging beautifully and showed youthful, still fresh fruit.”

2011 Rhone

2011 was a difficult year in the Rhône Valley; however, despite challenges posed by the weather conditions, many outstanding wines were produced. We’ve been very selective with the 2011s (more so than usual) and we feel that we have more than a few highlights to offer. Please note that many of the wines listed below are in very limited supply.

Cherry Pie
Cherry Tart
Multi-Single-Vineyard Blend

While walking through a new vineyard for his now famous Cherry Pie Single-Vineyard Pinot Noir, Winemaker Jayson Woodbridge was struck with a new concept: applying his “micro fermentation” technique used on Cherry Pie to three vineyards, in order to create a “Multi-Single-Vineyard blend”. Utilizing the unique taste and flavor profiles of three single vineyards, combined with the artisan micro winemaking approach of its namesake Cherry Pie, small individual lots are micro fermented in puncheon barrels. The result: Cherry Tart redefines artisan Pinot Noir. Appellations: 49% Sonoma Coast 43% Monterey County; 8% Santa Barbara County Cooperage: 100% French Oak, 20% New

2013 & 2012 Cherry Tart Pinot Noir

The 2013 Cherry Tart Pinot Noir jumps from the glass with aromas of raspberry, nutmeg, sandalwood and light smokiness, lifted by a floral note. Silky and delicate up front, with ripe acidity framing the rich, sweet flavors of red berries, red cherry and earth. Offers good fat without excess weight, finishing with a fine dusting of tannins and very good length.

Domaine J.A. Ferret
Since 1840

Situated in the heart of Fuissé, Domaine Ferret has long been a producer of top Pouilly-Fuissé cuvées. The estate was managed by the Ferret family from its founding in 1840 until it was purchased by Louis Jadot in 2008. Domaine Ferret has played a key role in defining the quality of the region. It was the first domaine in Pouilly-Fuissé to begin bottling on the estate, shortly after the Second World War. Further, its long-standing focus on vinifying each parcel of vines separately has allowed for the identification of the top terroirs. The Domaine Ferret portfolio falls into three tiers: Classic, Têtes de Cru and Cuvée Hors-Classe. The Tête de Cru and Hors-Classe parcels that have been identified are a precursor to the stratification of the appellation system (which is currently under consideration by the Institut National des Appellations d’Origine). Estate vineyards are comprised of 17 hectares throughout the Pouilly-Fuissé appellation; 13 of these are located in the amphitheater of Fuissé and 4 are near the Roche de Vergisson. These terroirs are located in some of the appellations best sites, and in tandem with the age of the vines and the relatively low yields, allow the production of exceptional Cuvées.

Joh. Jos. Prüm
Wehlener Sonnenuhr, Mosel

The Joy of Terroir

“This steep, rocky vineyard in Germany’s Mosel Valley is highly prized for its pure, elegant yet powerful Rieslings. Its name refers to a stone sundial installed on the most prominent rock among the vines, which faces directly southwest towards the town of Wehlen, across the river Mosel. It was put there in 1846 by Jodocus Prüm so that growers could keep track of time. The vineyard’s 65 hectares are on blue Devonian slate with very thin topsoil. This gives a lively minerality, crisp acidity and focused peach and citrus flavor to both dry and sweet wines. Harvesting as late as possible is key to getting the best and rippest fruit from vines that are on average 80 years old. The vineyard’s 200 or so parcels belong to some of the area’s leading names, with the biggest sites owned by JJ Prüm (18%) and Dr Loosen (11%).”  Decanter

TERMS: ALL WINES ARE SOLD IN MISSOURI AND TITLE PASSES TO THE BUYER IN MISSOURI AFTER IT IS DELIVERED TO THE CARRIER FOR SHIPMENT. We make no representation to the legal rights of anyone to ship or import alcoholic beverages into any state outside of Missouri. The buyer is solely responsible for shipment of wines. By placing an order with your credit card, check or cash, you authorize Brown Derby to act on your behalf in processing and shipping the order, including engaging a common carrier to deliver your order. WINES MAY BE SOLD AND DELIVERED ONLY TO PERSONS WHO ARE AT LEAST 21 YEARS OLD AND IN PLACING YOUR ORDER, YOU REPRESENT TO US THAT YOU ARE AT LEAST 21 YEARS OLD AND THE PERSON TO WHOM DELIVERY WILL BE MADE IS AT LEAST 21 YEARS OLD. When your alcoholic beverages are delivered, the person receiving will be required to show identification proving that he or she is at least 21 years old. All sales are subject to applicable Missouri state and any city sales tax. All wines featured in our online store are subject to availability. However, fine wines are not produced on a large scale. Many vintage wines are limited in availability and, when they go out of stock, are usually not replaceable. New vintages and other similar wines replace those that are no longer available. All our wines are stored in a climate-controlled environment, and we take great care in checking the condition of the wine we purchase. However, as is tradition in the wine trade, all bottles over 10 years old, are at the buyer’s risk. Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, but in the event of a misprint, the price posted in the store will prevail.
